COPYRIGHT ASSIGNMENT

This Copyright Assignment is for use by contributors who wish to assign the copyright to their software code contributions to The Open Source Geospatial Foundation, a Delaware not-for-profit corporation ("OSGeo"). OSGeo typically obtains contributions of software code by way of a license grant from the contributor; OSGeo does not require that contributors to its projects assign their copyright to the foundation. However, many contributors have expressed a desire to do so. This document is designed to allow you to assign the copyright in your code contributions to OSGeo secure in the knowledge that your contributions will be maintained for public benefit.
