About 2014 FOSS4G Travel Grants
We realize that traveling to and attending a conference can be expensive, and that not everyone who uses or develops open source software has someone to pay their way for them or the means to pay for it themselves. To make sure that as many deserving people as possible can attend FOSS4G, we're creating a travel grant program.

Relevant timelines are below-- please contact foss4gtravelgrants@osgeo.org (or some other / better alias, whatever -- goes to kbott) with any questions.
