

Geospatial Interoperability Day

21 June 2011
Centre for Geospatial Science
University of Nottingham

Join us to learn about and try
OSGeo software and data handling approaches to interoperability using
OGC specifications

OS GIS UK 2011

Interoperability Day is part of the Open Source GIS event hosted by the Centre for Geospatial Science at the University of Nottingham.

June 21-22, 2011

Register Soon
Space is limited

<http://bit.ly/osgis>

Speakers

Prof. Mike Jackson - CGS
Tyler Mitchell - OSGeo
Addy Pope - EDINA
Chris Little - UK Met
Jeremy Morley - CGS

Hands-on Workshops

Translate & serve Ordnance Survey data with OSGeo tools - Astun Technology
Introducing OneGeology - British Geological Survey
Introducing GeoServer - GeoSolutions Italy
Quantum GIS and Web Mapping Services - Faunalia UK

<http://bit.ly/osgis>

OGC[®]
Making Location Count

CGS